

PLAYER'S GUIDE

RE:PARTEÉ
THE WALKTHROUGH

Every puzzle in all five levels, from a crackling bedroom mixer to the Harbor Lights main stage, with the alternate routes and the money tips.

Spoiler warning: this guide gives away every puzzle and most of the jokes. For a nudge only, read the tips in section 3.

A game by Carlos Franzetti. github.com/CarlosFranzetti/Repartee. Play it at repartee-umber.vercel.app.

1. THE PREMISE

You are a broke bedroom DJ in New York City. You have three records, a mixer that sounds like bacon frying, a phone at 1%, and a neighbor who bangs on the pipe at eleven o'clock. Over five levels you hustle, dig, mix and talk your way from Bushwick to a headline slot at the Harbor Lights festival.

LEVEL	TITLE	WHAT YOU ARE TRYING TO DO
1	Bedroom DJ	Fix your gear, find a closer, and play your first gig at Nowhere on Saturday.
2	Underground Hustler	Raise cash, get turntables, save a dead PA, and win a monthly slot from Vic.
3	Club DJ	Win Thursday's anniversary night at the Halcyon Room without being robbed by Brandon Shine.
4	Touring DJ	Make a record, fly to Berlin with your bag intact, and play Halle Neun at 2 AM.
5	Superstar DJ	Build a rig, handle Axl Vanta, and headline Harbor Lights.

2. CONTROLS

- Pick a verb, then click something. The verbs are Look at, Pick up, Use, Open, Talk to, Push, Close, Give and Pull.
- To Use or Give an item: pick the verb, click the item in your inventory, then click the thing or person. A step in this guide such as "Use vodka swab on mixer" means exactly that.
- Click the floor to walk. Click a door or exit with Use to change rooms.
- Right-click (desktop) looks. Space, Enter or a click skips dialogue.
- H or Tab puts a label on every clickable thing in the room. Use it whenever you are stuck.
- Keys: L look, P pick up, U use, O open, T talk, G give, Esc to cancel a verb.
- MENU (or the phone) opens your messages, the subway map, your record crate, your setup, and Save game. The map appears when you are free to travel. The game also saves as you go.
- Mini-games explain themselves on screen, and the title screen's Mini-Game Arcade replays them. Failing one never ruins the story: you can retry, and after enough misses the game moves you on.

3. TIPS WITH NO SPOILERS

1. Look at everything. Every hotspot answers Look, and the jokes are half the game.
2. Try the wrong verb. Pushing, pulling or giving the wrong thing often gets a custom line.
3. Talk to people twice. Many characters have new things to say after you have done something.
4. Listen to hints that sound like insults. Ray, Lou and Odessa tell you what to do while pretending not to.
5. Check the crate in your phone menu. Every record has a real fact, and one level quizzes you on them.
6. You cannot get stuck. The game never lets you lose an item you still need.
7.

LEVEL 1: BEDROOM DJ

> Spoilers for Level 1 below.

Setup. It is Tuesday night in Apartment 4C. Dante, who books Nowhere, has texted you, but you cannot call him on a broken setup. You will fix the mixer, pass a phone audition, spend Wednesday earning money, stealing a USB stick and digging for a fourth record, then play Nowhere on Saturday.

TUESDAY NIGHT IN THE BEDROOM

1. Pick up under the bed. You find the phone charger.
2. Use phone with phone charger. The phone wakes up and you read your texts.
3. Pick up the pizza box. There is a $5 bill stuck to the cheese.
4. Pick up the empty cans. You will cash them in later.
5. Use the CDJs. This is a quick deck test. Channel 2 crackles like bacon.
6. Open the desk drawer, then Pick up the desk drawer to take the cotton swabs and the vodka.
7. Use cotton swabs on 100-proof vodka. You get a vodka swab.
8. Use vodka swab on mixer. The crackle is gone.
9. Use the CDJs again. Now you play loud enough that Lou bangs on the pipe.
10. Pick up the milk crate. You take your three records: Everything But The Girl, Phuture's "Acid Tracks", and your mom's Grover Washington Jr. "Winelight".
11. Give "Winelight" to the hole in the wall. Lou loves Bill Withers and pays you back with a white label marked "NYC 93". Keep it safe.
12. Use the phone and choose Call Dante. This starts a beat.Match audition over the phone. How to win: use your ears. Two kicks a hair apart sound like a horse galloping, and one clean thump means you are locked. Up and down change pitch (Shift for coarse), left and right nudge. Then bring the second deck in with the crossfader. Dante books you for Saturday: a vinyl hour, then tracks on a USB.
13. Use "Acid Tracks" (warped) on bed, then Use the bed to sleep. The mattress will flatten it overnight.

WEDNESDAY MORNING: THE STREET

14. Pull the bed to take the now-flat "Acid Tracks" back.
15. Use the door, then Talk to door 4B (Lou). His set tip: start soft, give them something to chew on, and keep the good stuff until they have earned it.
16. Use the stairs down. On the stoop, Smitty offers you $20 and a slice for dropping a bag at Sal's. Pick "Twenty? I'm in." and then "Fine. Hand it over." (Use the package to peek if you like. It is oregano.)

THE BODEGA, SAL'S AND CASH

17. Use the bodega door.
18. Use bag of cans on the can-deposit machine. You get $2.40 (your total is $7.40).
19. Optional: Look at Ali and pet the bodega cat. Her name is Cheese and she is the manager.
20. Use the door to the street, then Use Sal's door.
21. Talk to Sal if you like (pick "Of course not" when he asks if you peeked). Give Smitty's package to Sal. You get $20 and a Sal's slice. Save the slice. You need it for Saturday.
22. Leave and Use the subway stairs (L train). Pick Synergex Solutions on the map. Each ride costs $3.

SYNERGEX: THE FIRE-ALARM USB

You want a USB stick from the supply closet, and the closet only opens when the fire alarm goes off.

23. Talk to Brenda. Ask "Is there a USB drive I could borrow?" and "What happens if there's a fire?", then back out.
24. Look at the supply closet. A sign reads MAGLOCK RELEASES ON FIRE ALARM (CODE 3.1).
25. Talk to Greg and Dev. Linda keeps her popcorn in the break room, and its smoke detector is very sensitive.
26. Use break room.
27. Pick up the cupboards to take Linda's popcorn.
28. Use the microwave (the popcorn goes in). Choose Press POPCORN, then choose Press POPCORN again. The bag says press once. Ignore the bag.
29. The smoke detector goes off and the floor evacuates. You stay behind. Open the supply closet and take the USB 3-pack.

DEEP CUTS: THE CLOSER

30. Use the subway stairs, pick Deep Cuts Records on the map.
31. Talk to Ray. He tells you a vinyl hour needs four records and to dig the dollar bins.
32. Use the dollar bins to start go.Digging. How to win: a closer is a big, warm, sing-along record. You cannot tell by the sleeve, so LISTEN and the tag shows. Ten dollars is the cap. Buy "Finally" by CeCe Peniston.
33. Ray hands you a Nowhere flyer with your name misspelled. Keep it for Saturday.

HOME: LOAD THE TRACKS AND SLEEP

34. Travel Home (Jefferson St). Use the front door, then the door 4C.
35. Use USB 3-pack to open it and keep a stick.
36. Use laptop with USB stick. Choose A little of everything (the safe one). You get four reliable tracks.
37. Use the bed. You sleep through Thursday and Friday (the landlord leaves a note that says "ha") and wake up on Saturday night.

SATURDAY: NOWHERE

38. Leave the apartment, Use the stairs down, and take the subway to Nowhere.
39. Talk to Tank on the door. He wants proof and food.
40. Give Nowhere flyer to Tank.
41. Give Sal's slice to Tank. He eats it with his eyes closed and lets you in.
42. Use the door to Nowhere.
43. Talk to Dante, then Talk to Dani behind the bar. She will dance if you earn it.
44. Use the DJ booth to start crowd.Read. How to win: the room is nearly empty at ten, so start soft and build. If the bartenders dance, the floor follows. Save the white label for when the room has warmed up, and play the closer last.
45. The bartenders dance, the floor fills, and Dante promises to pay you next week. Level 1 is complete.

LEVEL 2: UNDERGROUND HUSTLER

> Spoilers for Level 2 below.

Setup. Two weeks later you are sleeping on Marcus's couch in Bed-Stuy because the landlord changed the lock on 4C. You need cash, a shower, turntables and a gig. Vic runs the vinyl party Basement Tapes and gives slots to nobody. You will fix a dead PA at a loft party, then throw an after-party in an illegal basement.

The first half is open: get clean, raise money and get into 4C can go in nearly any order. From Friday night it is a line.

MARCUS'S COUCH

1. Look at the window, my gear and the fridge. The fridge has a LifeDrop plasma flyer and a Post-it about someone called Linda.
2. Talk to Marcus and ask everything: "So what's the plan?", "Can I use your shower?", "Tell me about Vic.", and "What should I do next?". He texts Dani for you and unlocks three map spots: the plasma center, Eddie's van and Dani's place.

GOAL: GET CLEAN (TOBY'S WAY)

Toby has been in the bathroom since Sunday doing a twelve-step ritual. His only child is Linda, a kombucha culture.

3. Use the bathroom door three times. The third knock is for emergencies.
4. Open the fridge, then Pick up the fridge to take the jar marked "Linda".
5. Use bathroom door with Linda (jar). Toby panics, gives you the bathroom and, as thanks, a lavender sachet to give to Fitz later.

Alternative: Dani's shower. See the end of this level.

GOAL: RAISE MONEY (PLASMA)

6. Use the door, then Talk to Mrs. Pearl on the stoop. Ask "How does the plasma thing work?" and "I got locked out. What counts as proof of address?". She says a bill, a lease, or an envelope with your name.
7. Use the subway stairs and pick My old building (4C).
8. Look at the notice, then Use my door (4C). It is locked. Talk to Lou's door (4B). Ask for your mail, which gives you a Con Ed bill (4C) as proof of address. Ask about "NYC 93" too: Lou admits it is his own track. Also ask who painted the hall window shut.
9. Use the window. It is painted shut, but there is a seam. You will need something thin and flat later.
10. Use the stairs down and pick the LifeDrop Plasma Center.
11. Use the pen on a chain. It tells you that you need a form first. Talk to Rhonda and pick "I'd like to donate plasma." She hands you Form 27-B (blank).
12. Use pen on a chain with Form 27-B (blank). You fill in the form.
13. Give Form 27-B (filled out) to Rhonda. She takes the bill and clears you.
14. Talk to Nurse Bev and pick "Look at the ceiling". You get a LifeDrop card ($100).
15. Try the exit. You are woozy and cannot leave. Use the aftercare table for the cookie and the juice.
16. Use the exit and travel to Marcus's block.
17. Use LifeDrop card on the ATM. Choose "Withdraw everything ($90)". The machine charges a $9.99 fee.

GOAL: GET INTO 4C (THE FIRE ESCAPE)

18. Take the subway to Eddie's van. Talk to Eddie Two-Times and ask about the AT-LP120-USBs (the sticker is $215, the haggled deal about $180), his records ("Gypsy Woman" is $3) and Vic. You cannot afford the turntables yet.
19. Pick up the bargain blanket and choose "Take the putty knife ($4)". This is the thing that cracks the seam.
20. Travel to My old building (4C). Use window with putty knife. You climb the fire escape into your own kitchen window.
21. Inside 4C you take $35 from under Gerald's saucer and the demo cassette ("BED-STUY MIX VOL. 2"). Keep the cassette for Vic.
22. Use stairs down, travel to Marcus's block, and Use Marcus's door.

FRIDAY: MARCUS'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

23. Use the couch and choose "Sleep until Friday (Marcus's party)".
24. Use the door (guest list) and pick "Stick to the list, with a tiny bit of mercy". The party fills, and Marcus's cover jar pays you $108.
25. Give cat-photo USB stick to Jess. She lends you her spare power amp for the loft. Twinkie gives you "Show Me Love" and hints at Vic and an after-party.

SATURDAY: TURNTABLES

26. Use the door, travel to Eddie's van, and Talk to Eddie. Pick "I want the AT-LP120-USB pair." This starts buy.Gear. How to win: inspect and test each listing, haggle, and spot the broken one before you pay ("it was working this morning" is a warning). A good pair costs about $175, and Eddie throws in Inner City's "Good Life".

THE LOFT ON MESEROLE

27. Travel to The loft on Meserole. Give lavender sachet to Fitz on the door. He lets you in.
28. Talk to Moxie and pick "I've got a spare amp." She points you at the rack.
29. Talk to Kosmo Delacroix and pick "Any advice, Mr. Delacroix?". He gets your name wrong, but the advice is real: the hum is always the ground, so follow the cable nobody loves.
30. Use borrowed power amp on amp rack.
31. Use the DJ booth to start sound.Check. How to win: trace the chain: decks, mixer, DI, EQ, amp, speakers. UNMUTE the PA, play a deck, then listen. Pink noise tests the amp and speakers alone. A hum means try the ground lift. Fix every fault, then open the doors.
32. Moxie pays you out of the door money (+$40). Vic watches from the back and the Basement Tapes spot appears on your map.

BASEMENT TAPES

33. Use door (outside), take subway stairs, and travel to Basement Tapes (Gowanus).
34. Talk to Twinkie and start after.Party. How to win: before sunrise you need people, a location and a sound system. The location is sorted, so text your contacts (Marcus, Dani, Moxie) and watch your phone battery.
35. Use turntables (boxed pair) on the DJ booth. Your set ends with Lou's "NYC 93".
36. Vic walks in. Keep the demo cassette ready. It gets handed over. Then promoter.Talk starts. How to win: a dialogue duel with patience and interest meters. Do not sound desperate and never say "please" to Vic. Show you are not in a rush, that you know his party, and mention the white label.
37. Vic gives you a monthly slot (last Saturday, 11 PM to 12:30), cash on the night, and a copy of Mr. Fingers' "Can You Feel It". Level 2 is complete.

Alternatives for Level 2

- Alternative: Dani instead of Toby. Once Marcus has texted her, travel to Dani's place (Greenpoint) and Talk to her. Pick "I'll be honest, I really just need a shower." You get clean, a name to drop at the loft door, and you can ask "Could I take some pierogi to go?" (or Pick up the coffee table).
- Alternative: Kowalski and the key to 4C. Tuesday 2 PM is the building manager's office hour. In the hall, Talk to Mr. Kowalski and ask for the key to 4C. He will not budge for nothing: Give Dani's pierogi to him and pay $40. You get the key and he puts in a word with Vic. Use my door (4C) with key to 4C.
- Alternative: Rosa's side job. At Rosa's Deli Grocery you can earn $18 a run, twice per chapter.
- Alternative: sneaking into the loft. Without the sachet, Push the dumpster, then Use the dangling ladder.
- Alternative: a lemon at Eddie's. If you miss the broken deck in buy.Gear, the sale does not go through. Try again, or settle for a cheaper deck.
- Alternative: mini-game failures. You can fail sound.Check or after.Party once and retry. If promoter.Talk goes badly three times, Vic gives in anyway.

Level 3: Club DJ

> Spoilers for Level 3 below.

Setup. Six months later you have a Thursday residency at the Halcyon Room. Odessa has three house rules: be early, stay sober, bring Gus a snack. Next Thursday is the six-month anniversary, and Brandon Shine, who plays Saturdays, is acting very friendly. Odessa's lipstick napkin lists what to do first: decks, a mixer, a grail record and a promo week.

Night 1 and the final night are straight lines. The week between is open: do the gear, grail and promo goals in any order.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON: PACK THE BAG

1. Talk to the hole in the wall. Lou says to play his white label the night it counts.
2. Use the door. It refuses until you have a bag and a USB.
3. Pick up tracks USB and Pick up the record crate (you get the record bag).
4. Look at the desk drawer and Pick up the desk drawer to take the old USB (the cat photos). Keep this stick. It becomes a decoy later.
5. Use the door and travel to The Halcyon Room.

NIGHT 1: THE STREET AND GUS

6. Talk to Eddie Two-Times. He says come back when you are paid.
7. Use Sunrise Deli. The dollar menu has pork rinds, salt and vinegar chips and a pickle. Buy the chips. Gus hates pork rinds, so skip them (or buy them to see him say "No."). Each snack is $2.
8. Use the Halcyon Room door. Odessa greets you. Talk to Nico and Bex, the feuding bartenders.
9. Use the DJ booth. The monitors are asleep. Pick up the gold smiley sticker (Brandon's signature), then Use the steps to the floor.
10. Talk to Gus. He says "Snack." Give salt & vinegar chips to Gus. He wakes the monitors with a clap test.
11. Use the DJ booth and then Use the CDJs. This starts crowd.Read. How to win: the bar is empty at ten PM, so start soft, build, and let the room find you. It fills like a tub.
12. Odessa pays you $200 and hands you a lipstick napkin. You wake up Friday at 1:20 PM with $316.

THE WEEK (ANY ORDER)

Use the bed to sleep only when the napkin is done. The bed refuses until the open goals are finished. You have until Thursday, and this is the one stretch where money matters.

GOAL: DECKS AND A MIXER

13. Travel to The Halcyon Room (street). Use Sunrise Deli and buy the pickle for $2. Gus wants it.
14. Talk to Eddie and pick the Pioneer CDJ-900 option (you can haggle first). This starts buy.Gear. How to win: inspect before you buy and do not touch the listing with the sticker. A good deal in the main walkthrough costs about $190.
15. Use the Halcyon Room door. In daylight Odessa is mopping.
16. Give bodega pickle to Gus. He gives you a dusty Pioneer DJM-350 with no power brick.
17. Use the door to Ludlow Street and Talk to Eddie. Choose "Buy the power brick ($35)".

GOAL: THE GRAIL RECORD (A THREE-STOP CHAIN)

18. Travel to Deep Cuts. Look at the 'NOT FOR SALE' wall. Talk to Ray and pick "I heard you had something for me." Ray tells you about Loose Joints, "Is It All Over My Face?" and that Mort at the Sunday record fair knows the collector. A new map spot appears.
19. Travel to the Sunday Record Fair. Talk to Mort. He grunts and wants a coffee.
20. Optional: Talk to Priya, a rival digger, and to Danny Krivit, a friendly cameo.
21. Look at the corkboard and Pick up the corkboard. You take the estate-sale flyer. The small print under the address is important.
22. Talk to the PTA lady and choose Black ($5). Black coffee is what Mort wants.
23. Give PTA coffee to Mort. He tells you about Hal Pruitt, a collector in Woodside whose niece is emptying the house this week. A map spot appears.
24. Travel to The Pruitt house. Priya is already bidding $110 for the whole house. Talk to Tanya.
25. First choose "Let me look around first." Then Talk to Tanya again and choose Show her the estate-sale flyer. The small print says no dealers. You buy the whole house for $70 and Priya leaves.
26. Use each of the three shelves and choose Keep the starred sleeves. Hal put a pencil star on every sleeve that made him cry. That keeps eight records, and a dealer outside pays for the leftovers.
27. Pick up the Technics turntables. The dust sheet will not lie flat. Talk to Bernard (parakeet) until he says "LEFT PLATTER".
28. Pick up the record on the platter. This is the Loose Joints. Then Pick up the Technics turntables.

GOAL: THE PROMO WEEK

29. Travel to Apartment 4C. Use the laptop and choose "Start the posting week". Pick Ten-second clips from the booth, one a day, no talking. You gain 320 fans.
30. Use the bed to sleep. It is now Thursday.

THURSDAY: ANNIVERSARY NIGHT

31. Important: Use record bag with tracks USB. The real stick goes into a Sylvester sleeve in the bag. Your old cat USB stays in your jacket pocket as bait. Brandon is a hugger, and hugging is how he steals.
32. Travel to The Halcyon Room. Talk to Twinkie (a hint about the hug), Marcus and look at the queue. Marcus arrives as "plus three" with Dee, Rico and the guy from the cab. Tiny lets them all in.
33. Use the Halcyon Room door. Brandon hugs you and steals the cat stick. Choose "Let him come". You smile.
34. Talk to Marcus, Brandon and Kosmo Delacroix.
35. Use the DJ booth. Kosmo is playing until midnight. Your real USB is safe.
36. Use the steps to the floor. Brandon plugs your fake stick into the LED wall and a hundred people see Mr. Whiskers forty feet wide. Odessa sends Brandon to her office.
37. Talk to Odessa. She tells you to be ready.
38. Use the DJ booth and then Use the CDJs. Kosmo overruns. This starts crowd.Read. How to win: the room is warm but wobbling. Do not cool it and do not spike it.
39. Use the CDJs again for the anniversary set. Pick the first record (Everything But The Girl, "Missing"), the last record (CeCe Peniston, "Finally"), and when the Loose Joints comes out: at the peak, after the white label, with the room already up.
40. Odessa gives you Saturday's main floor, the old Dynaudio BM5 mkIII monitors, and your $200.

THE WAY HOME

41. At the Delancey platform your MetroCard has expired. Choose Ask the man with the oranges for a swipe. Marcus told you about him.
42. Home at 3 AM, Lou asks if you played his 1993. You did. The booking agent's email from Berlin is waiting on your phone. Level 3 is complete.

MONEY TIPS FOR LEVEL 3

- You start the week with $316. A good CDJ deal ($190), the brick ($35), coffee ($5), pickle ($2) and the flyer price ($70) all fit.
- If you run short, Odessa offers a weekday shift for $55 (up to two), and Mort buys records at 60 cents on the dollar.
- On anniversary night Marcus's plus three run up a $200 bar tab, so you leave with $142. That is rent money.

ALTERNATIVES FOR LEVEL 3

- Alternative: the fallback when you forget to hide the USB. If you do not hide the real stick, Brandon swaps it at the hug and your drive is full of Brandon. You can still win it back. Odessa wants proof. Her bar-cam DVR needs two keys, held by Nico and Bex, who have not spoken since March. Talk to Nico and Bex and ask "What do you listen to when you're not angry?" (both secretly love Sylvester). Use record bag on bar record player and choose Sylvester. They make up and give you their keys. Use the staff door, then Use the bar-cam DVR in Odessa's office to get the bar-cam clip. Give the clip to Odessa. When Brandon is confronted, the cleaner choice is to say nothing and let the clip run again. Raising your voice costs a $40 fine and some fans. Talking to Brandon directly lets you keep it quiet in exchange for your USB, at the price of an extra $60 on the bar tab.
- Alternative: a tight budget. One run paid $260 for the decks, worked two weekday shifts for Odessa, sold two records to Mort, skipped the corkboard flyer and told Tanya about Hal's reputation ("Mort and Ray") for a $90 price, kept six of the eight stars, took a $40 fine for tagging every bar in the promo week, and jumped the turnstile at the platform. It still finished the level.

LEVEL 4: TOURING DJ

> Spoilers for Level 4 below.

Setup. A booking agent named Ingrid Falk wants you at Halle Neun in Berlin for a 2 AM set. You have $80, a heavy bag of records and an old white label to remix. You will release a record with Lou, negotiate a fee and a rider, then survive JFK, a lost bag, a ticket machine, a strict doorman and a hotel where Axl Vanta has stolen your room.

The level is a straight line, with money tight at JFK and in Berlin.

THE STUDIO (THURSDAY)

1. Use the laptop. You read Ingrid's email. She wants a release.
2. Pick up Gerald (your passport is under his leaves).
3. Pick up the box from Ray. It holds six techno and minimal records and a note: Berlin people respect records, so read the sleeves.
4. Talk to the hole. Lou comes over. Talk to Lou and ask "What's the story behind NYC 93?" and "Can I put it out? On my own label?" He wants fifty-fifty and his name on it, spelled right. Agree.
5. Use Technics with white label "NYC 93".
6. Use the sampler to start mak.Tracks. How to win: a 16-step sequencer. Fill the kick, clap, hat and bass rows around the chopped sample and make the drop hit. Lou is watching: do not chop his hi-hat. Fail three times and the game lets you through.
7. Use phone on the hole to take a cover photo of Lou's hole in the wall. This is your label, Pipe Hole Records.
8. Use the laptop to release the track. Pick a title and hand the socials to Marcus ("plus three") for the promo week. A video of Lou's cat Biscuit falling off a couch goes viral.
9. Ingrid calls. This starts promoter.Talk. How to win: negotiate fee, flights, hotel and rider. Refuse exposure every time it is offered. A good deal is $1,800 plus economy flights, a hotel and a rider: water, a towel, and a vegetable that is not a pickle.
10. Pick up the record bag (you cannot leave without it). Use the door and travel to JFK Airport, Terminal 4. The cab costs $8.

JFK: THE BAG AND THE $75 PINCH

You arrive with $72 and the airline wants $75 for an overweight bag. Fix that first.

11. Give passport to Dolores (check-in). You get a boarding pass for seat 23A.
12. Give record bag to Dolores. The fee is $75 and you cannot pay.
13. Talk to the man in a Hawaiian shirt (Gil). Pick "I could sell you a record. ($40)" and sell one you can spare (the $3 dollar-bin "Gypsy Woman" fetches $40). Now you can pay.
14. Give record bag to Dolores again. You get a claim tag, then a PA call: security has detained your bag.
15. Pick up the forms rack to take Form 7B (it only works after the airline calls you in).
16. Use the snack machine. Buy the beef jerky ($4, bribery for later) and a bottle of water ($3, the first rider item). Skip the pickle in a pouch: it is the wrong vegetable.
17. Use Baggage Services.

BAGGAGE SERVICES AND SECURITY

18. Talk to Bernadette. Ask about the detained bag, "What are you watching?", "That's my remix. I made it.", then show her the Pipe Hole Records page on your phone. She screams and stamps your Form 7B. She adds a smiley.
19. Use the Terminal door, then Use Security & Gates.
20. Give Form 7B (stamped) to Officer Delgado. He signs it.
21. Give beef jerky to Nugget the beagle. Delgado stares at the wall. Nugget gets off your bag.
22. Pick up the inspection table to get your bag back.
23. Use Security & Gates again to reach the plane.

THE PLANE

24. Use seat 23A. You cannot sit with the bag on your lap.
25. Talk to Marguerite (flight attendant). Use the cart twice. Take a towel (free) and a tomato juice ($4) for its celery stick. That covers the second and third rider items.
26. Talk to Kosmo Delacroix. He calls you Brenton. Give record bag to Kosmo and he lets it sit on his spare seat, gently.
27. Use seat 23A and choose "Sit down." (If you picked "Not yet" you can try again.) The flight takes a long time.

Alternative: if you are broke, tell Kosmo a joke instead. A good one earns $60.

BERLIN: THE LAST TRAIN

You land at 11:52 PM and the last airport train leaves at 12:07.

28. Look at the network map. You are in zone C. Pick up the platform bin to take eight one-way plastic bottles. You can redeem them later.
29. Use the ticket machine. Buy Zones A, B and C ($4.90). A ticket without C is the wrong ticket. If you buy A and B by mistake, use the machine again and choose Upgrade to zones A, B and C ($2.00).
30. Use the ticket validator. A ticket you do not stamp is just paper.
31. Use the airport express. Choose Change at Ostkreuz, like the map says. The other route is the bad choice and ends with a taxi, late and skint.

THE STREET, THE SPÄTI AND SVEN

32. Pick up the empty bottles on the curb. Talk to Kemal at the Späti. Ask "Tell me about Sven.", then pick "I have some empties for the Pfand." You get $2.48. Ask "What do you sell?" and buy a Club-Mate ($2). Nobody ever brings the doorman a drink.
33. Use to Halle Neun.
34. Give Club-Mate to Sven. That answers question one for you.
35. Talk to Sven. He asks about the labels of your records. A wrong answer just repeats the question. Quiz tips: Robert Hood, "Minimal Nation" is on Axis. Ben Klock, "One" is on Ostgut Ton. The record facts are in the record crate in your phone menu. Read them on the train.
36. You get a Halle Neun wristband. Use the door.

HALLE NEUN: THE SET

37. Talk to Jeff Mills for a nod.
38. Give bottle of water to Katja. Give towel to Katja. She ticks them off. The vegetable goes over at the till after your set.
39. Use the DJ booth. First comes beat.Match, then crowd.Read. How to win: beat.Match works as before. For crowd.Read, build a techno floor slowly with your Berlin records.
40. At the till Katja counts the vegetable too. A complete rider adds a $100 bonus. You collect $1,900 and 4,200 fans. Jeff Mills says "Nice record."

THE HOTEL

41. Use the steel door, then Use Hotel Zum Pfau.
42. Use the elevator. You have no key. Talk to Herr Brandt (night clerk). Ask what Axl is doing here and whether anything makes him get up. The answer: Axl cannot resist a pen.
43. Give passport to Herr Brandt. This is the important bit. The clerk has to be on your side first.
44. Pick up the postcard rack to take a hotel postcard.
45. Give hotel postcard to Axl Vanta. He signs it, the clerk mentions the Kaiserin Suite, and Axl leaves.
46. Pick up the room key. Use the elevator. You sleep eleven hours, and Ingrid offers you the headline slot at Harbor Lights. Level 4 is complete.

Note: if Axl gets the postcard before the clerk has seen your passport, he just keeps the key.

MONEY TIPS FOR LEVEL 4

- You start with $80, and the cab costs $8. The overweight fee is $75, so sell one record to Gil for $40 first.
- Buy the water and jerky at JFK and the juice on the plane. Keep cash for the Berlin ticket.
- Keep the plastic bottles. Kemal pays a quarter each (eight cents for glass).
- A complete rider adds $100 to the $1,800 fee. Water, a warm towel, and a vegetable that is not a pickle.

ALTERNATIVES FOR LEVEL 4

- Alternative: failing mini-games. The game still lets you through. A weak promoter.Talk gives a smaller fee, still a deal.
- Alternative: the unhappy path. Ride with the wrong ticket and you are fined, then a taxi gets you there late and skint. You still play.
- Alternative: recovering from broke. At the ticket machine, a stag party will buy a record for $20. At Kemal's Späti you can redeem the bottles, busk twice and sell a record, then buy water, a carrot and a dish towel for the rider. A carrot counts as a vegetable and a dish towel counts as a towel.
- Alternative: a failed quiz. Wrong answers repeat, and Sven lets you in eventually. Each rider item you miss comes off your fee.

LEVEL 5: SUPERSTAR DJ

> Spoilers for Level 5 below.

Setup. Harbor Lights wants you to headline on Saturday night, and your manager Margo Quist has wired a $4,000 advance. You will buy a rig, do a radio interview, sort a guest list, invite Lou, then spend Saturday fixing your pass, placating Axl Vanta, soundchecking and taking the room from Axl when he overruns. It ends at sunrise on the pier.

Thursday and Friday are goal lists. On Saturday, once your pass is fixed, the soundcheck and Axl can go in either order.

THURSDAY: GEAR

You start with about $5,500. The Taula, the Core 47 monitors and the CDJ-3000 decks together cost more than you have, so you must choose.

1. Look around the studio. The bed refuses until the Taula is bought.
2. Use the clothes rail and choose The pink-lined coat. It is black outside and hot pink inside.
3. Take the subway to Lacquer & Wire (Williamsburg). Eddie Two-Times is there, too.
4. Talk to Mercè and pick "I want the Taula." This starts buy.Gear. How to win: Mercè asks three questions. Do not lie. The Taula costs $1,650.
5. Talk to Eddie and ask about the Core 47 monitors. This starts a second buy.Gear in his van. They cost $3,200.
6. Talk to Mercè and ask "What about decks?". The CDJ-3000 pair is $3,200, which you cannot afford. The used CDJ-900NXS pair is $990.
7. If you are short, Talk to Eddie and choose "Eddie, buy some of my records." He pays $450 each and stops after two (Acid Tracks and Hardrive are the usual picks).
8. Choose the used 900NXS pair. The shop asks you to confirm, and you can say "Not yet" first. Then confirm.
9. Travel to Your studio. Look at the delivery boxes and the record crate. Use the bed to sleep.

Alternative: the cheap, honest rig. Buy only the Taula. Ask Mercè "I'm short" and choose "Call Margo" for a $600 advance on the fee. Keep your old CDJs and monitors. At home the bed asks if you want more shopping. Sleeping on it is fine.

FRIDAY: THE RADIO, THE GATE AND LOU

10. Travel to Radio Harbor 88.1. Look at the control room window. Talk to Dana Okafor.
11. Pick the first option each time: "One bad decision at a time.", "The bartenders danced.", "A white label nobody's heard. It's my neighbor's." and "No comment. But I'd like it noted: I have a Taula." These score well. Do not say Axl Vanta's name on air.
12. Callers cut in (Ray, Marcus, Eddie, Dante). Dante promises on air to pay you, which matters on the pier.
13. When Dana asks for a record, pick CeCe Peniston, "Finally". You gain 6,400 fans.
14. Dana offers a paid read for Eddie's Spirit Water. Choose Read it (+$1,100) for the cash (you lose 200 fans), or decline.
15. Travel to Harbor Lights Festival. Talk to Marcus. He says Whit's list comes first.
16. Talk to Whit. You get your all-access pass, hand-laminated and spelled wrong.
17. Talk to Marcus again and choose Marcus picks four. Nine on the list, and Whit keeps three comps for the walk-ups. Whit gives you an envelope for Lou.
18. Travel to Your studio. Talk to the hole in the wall and choose "I want you to come, Lou." He says to slide the invitation under the pipe.
19. Give Lou's pass to the hole in the wall. He agrees, and wants his good navy cardigan.
20. Use the bed to sleep until Saturday.

SATURDAY: THE PASS CHAIN

Gloria on the artist gate will not let in a wrong pass. Everything backstage is behind Gloria.

21. Use the door. You are at the gate. Talk to Margo and Whit.
22. Use to the festival grounds. Look at your pass. Talk to Gloria. She refuses and tells you the pass needs permanent ink because it is laminated.
23. Look at Ray's price mug, then Talk to Ray. Choose "Got a Sharpie, Ray?" to get a Sharpie. Ask his advice too: start low, climb, and don't peak before midnight.
24. Talk to Twinkie and ask "What do you know about Axl Vanta?". Key hint: call him Alex and mention his mother's banner in the front row.
25. Optional: Talk to Jess and promise Mr. Whiskers a shout-out in the set.
26. Use Sharpie on pass. You rewrite your name in capital letters.
27. Give pass to Gloria. She lets you through.
28. Use the artist gate to go backstage.

SATURDAY: AXL AND THE SOUNDCHECK (EITHER ORDER)

29. Optional: Talk to Louie Vega, DJ Spinna and Francois K. They all say "Have a great set."
30. Talk to Roz, the stage manager. She explains Axl wants your slot and will not open the door without a smoothie.
31. Pick up the green smoothie in catering.
32. Use Axl's trailer. Axl is rude and suspicious. Choose the Twinkie line: "Alex. Your mom's in the front row. With a banner." He folds. You get the 11:45 slot and he promises to be off by 11:30.
33. Use the stairs to the stage, then Use the stage entrance to reach the main stage.
34. Look at the LED wall and the speaker stacks. Use the DJ booth to start sound.Check. How to win: Mo (front of house) lists four faults: ground hum, a dead channel, feedback, and a deck patched into the wrong input. Unmute the PA, play each deck, listen, and follow the signal chain.
35. When both Axl and the soundcheck are done, night falls. Walk back through the wings to the backstage area. Lou and Marcus arrive.

Alternative: soundcheck first, Axl last. Do the soundcheck, then fetch the smoothie and go to Axl without Roz's or Twinkie's help. It works, but Axl's scene goes worse.

SATURDAY NIGHT: THE OVERRUN AND THE SET

36. Talk to Lou and Marcus. Lou is wearing the navy cardigan.
37. Use the stairs to the stage. Axl is an hour into a set that had no encores. Roz asks how you want to take the room. Any of the three answers works. The first, Walk on, take the second channel and slide the room away from him, one record at a time, is the most fun.
38. Talk to Roz and Lou. Use the stage entrance to reach the main stage at night.
39. Use the DJ booth to start the headline set. Choose an opener (Open low: Mr. Fingers, "Can You Feel It". Let the field lean in.) and a closer (Close it down: Mood II Swing, "Closer".). How to win crowd.Read: Ray's rules apply. Start low, climb, do not peak before midnight, do not jump more than four BPM unless you mean it, and if the room goes weird, play something they know.
40. Next comes a beat.Match: Lou's white label into CeCe's "Finally". No waveform helps you. Use your ears and mind the dead spot in the left pitch fader.
41. Mr. Whiskers gets his shout-out, and Kosmo finally says your real name. You gain 25,000 fans.

SUNRISE ON THE PIER

42. Use the sunrise once to learn you are not done. You must talk to people first.
43. Talk to Lou (he adopts the cat Biscuit) and Dante. Dante pays you in 400 Nowhere drink tickets. It is the best and the worst paycheck you have ever had.
44. Talk to Marcus, Ray, Twinkie, Eddie, Jess, Margo and Kosmo. Margo's fee clears into your wallet.
45. Use the sunrise. Level 5 is complete.

MONEY TIPS FOR LEVEL 5

- Money is loose, but you cannot afford the Taula, the Core 47s and the CDJ-3000s together. Buy the Taula first.
- The paid radio read is $1,100 for 200 fans. Margo's advance is a $600 loan against your fee, with ten percent on top.
- The fee is $5,000 less $200 for the sunrise invoice, and less the advance if you took it.

ALTERNATIVES FOR LEVEL 5

- Alternative: cheap rig. Taula only, Margo's advance, your old CDJs and monitors, no radio plug.
- Alternative: the overrun. Any of the three answers works, including "Wait it out. He promised."

Records, labels and venues named here are real and used as homage. Every other character and club is fictional.
